

The Stal Gallery Young Emerging Artist Prize 2017

10/01/2018 Mai Al Abri

Stal Gallery presented the third edition of its Annual Young Emerging Artist Prize last Tuesday, January 9, 2018 under the auspices of Her Highness Sayyida Hafidha bint Mahmood al Said. The exhibition featured Omani artists: Ayah Yousuf, Maher Abdulwahab, Nabaa Baqir, Tariq al Hajri, Fatma Abdulaziz, Mazin al Harthi, Muzn Meer, Mahmood Harib, Alaa al Dhiyabi, Mahmood Noah, and Umayma al Hinali.

In continuation to uphold its dedication to support and motivate the young Omani artists, Stal Gallery was thrilled to be in the forefront of this initiative. Through the Young Emerging Artist programme, which started with an open call and a careful selection of candidates, the artists have had the opportunity to be mentored under gallery's Circle of Experimental Art. The exhibition featured a wide variety of artwork that tackled issues on politics, society, and religion through the eyes of forthcoming generation of young Omani artists. At the award ceremony, the artist Fatima al Awadhi heralded the Grand Prize Winner, which was named Raya al Rawahi's Prize for art, after the artist Raya who had passed away last month. The Prizes for the Best Concept went to Maher al Balushi, Best Presentation for Nabaa Baqir, and the Best Use of Materials award went for Mahmood Harib. In her two-piece installation, Fatma showcases a decade of mentalities that are wide-spread in our society. People have been using religion to diffuse fear. The lectures that were used to make the remixes were made to intimidate people rather than to help them heal spiritually. Mahmood Noah features stages of possession in which he describes "stages of possession is the un-told story of a girl who has had an indelible experience in the recent past. It describes the ordeal of Kamila's story, although public now and censored to an extent, is a taboo tale of a collection of things we don't generally speak of so openly in our society". Curator and Stal Gallery's Artistic Director, Hassan al Meer, says about the programme, "It is an opportunity for both established and emerging artists to engage in the thought process and the conceptualisation of new ideas towards effectively communicating the concepts presented therein both aesthetically and philosophically... which provide enlightenment and deeper understanding of the world that we live in."

Mai al Abria

Related

Stal Gallery to present Young Emerging Artist Prize
06/01/2018
In "Features"

Italy and Oman celebrate art day
15/10/2019
In "Local"

Italy and Oman celebrate the Contemporary Art Day at Stal Gallery
23/10/2019
In "Features"

You May Also Like

Joint meeting for non-profit organizations regulators
06/08/2018

Belgium's T/S Rupel wins Sultan Qaboos Award for Sailing
08/12/2019

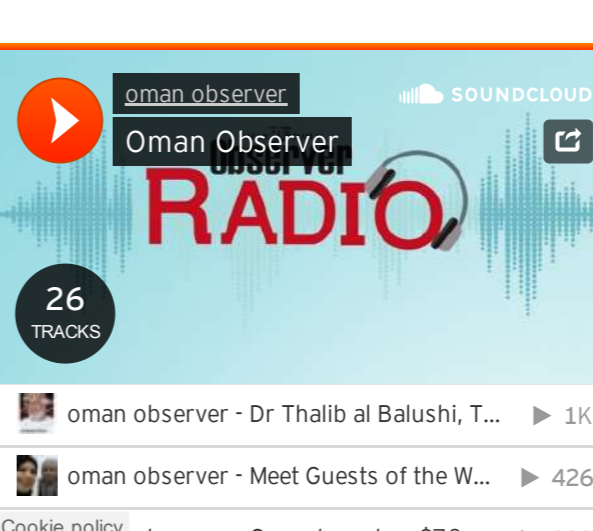

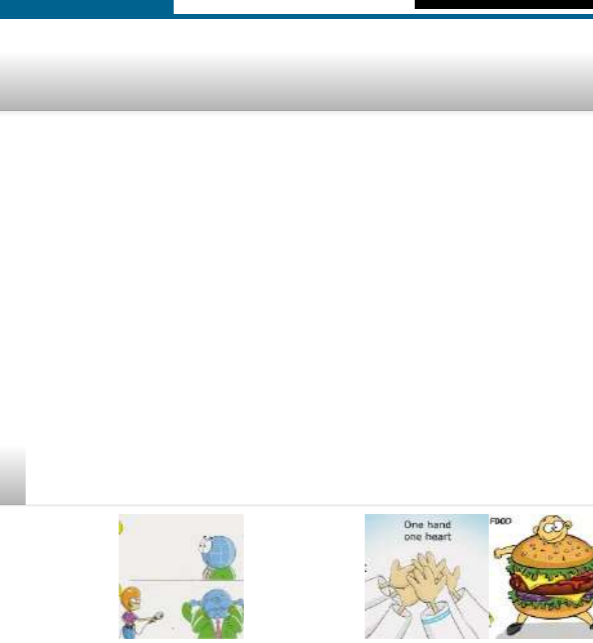

ADVENTURE HAS A NAME
25/03/2018

Full Pages

Cartoon

View All

Editor's Choice

Video: Oman has embraced modernization and progress
19/11/2019

Spotlight: Save the seas
09/11/2019

Spotlight: Employers must implement weight control programme
16/10/2019

Spotlight: A 'Hybrid Transition'
02/11/2019

Spotlight: Save farms
13/10/2019

Spotlight: Print or online
06/10/2019

Advertisement for social media advertising on Oman Observer and Oman Daily Newspaper.

Health

View All

71pc Omanisation in MOH
05/11/2019

Spotlight: Beat burnout for better life
04/11/2019

Spotlight: Time to lose weight
29/10/2019

Insurance to be made mandatory for visitors
22/10/2019

Spotlight: Employers must implement weight control programme
16/10/2019

Books

View All

Austrian Handke and Pole Tokarczuk win Nobel prizes for literature
10/10/2019

Oman-based author launching haunting WWII themed book in Oman soon
27/03/2019

Book lovers throng fair
21/02/2019

HM the Sultan's Adviser for Cultural Affairs Office at Book Fair
21/02/2019

Book vending machine draws crowds at MIBF
21/02/2019

Twitter

Tweets by @OmanObserver

Instagram

Sections:

- Local
- World
- Sports
- Business
- Features
- Head stories

Multimedia

- Youtube
- Facebook
- Twitter
- Whatsapp

Services

- About Us
- Subscribe
- Advertisements
- Contact Us

PO Box: 947 Code: 100
Muscat
+968 24 64 94 80
editor@omanobserver.om

Search